

LOOKING AFTER YOUR EMOTIONAL/MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING AT SUSSEX

You will find being at university challenging and demanding at times. It's not unusual to feel homesick at first, and to worry that you might not be clever or confident enough to cope with things such as seminars and assessments.

Here's some information about looking after yourself and finding help when you need it. There's a lot of support available – both here in the University and out in the community.

LOOKING AFTER YOUR EMOTIONAL/ MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING

THE NHS RECENTLY LAUNCHED THEIR “FIVE WAYS TO WELLBEING”, AIMED AT IMPROVING OUR EMOTIONAL/MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLBEING. WE’VE LISTED THESE BELOW AND HAVE MADE SOME SUGGESTIONS ABOUT HOW TO APPLY THEM AT SUSSEX.

1

CONNECT

University provides lots of opportunities to meet new people, but this can feel challenging and overwhelming too. If you’d like to meet some new people who like doing the same things as you, the Students’ Union’s Buddy Scheme (www.buddyscheme.com) or their clubs and societies are a great place to start.

BE ACTIVE

Physical activity reduces stress and anxiety and improves mood, so regularly exercising is a great way to meet others and look after your wellbeing. Why not join a sports club (www.sussexstudent.com/sport-societies-media/discover/) or the gym at Sussexsport (www.sussex.ac.uk/sport), or just take a walk (www.sussexstudent.com/whats-on/brighton-walking-tours-1810/). Eating well and drinking plenty of water will also help.

3

TAKE NOTICE

We’ve got a beautiful campus so why not take a walk through the fields or look out for a guided tour/ boundary walk. You could also try the free mindfulness sessions run by the Chaplaincy. Relax and have some fun! It’s really important to have some regular “down time”.

4

KEEP LEARNING

University study is demanding and sometimes this can feel really stressful. Learning how to manage your time and study effectively can help you to cope better. Look online for the Skills Hub (www.sussex.ac.uk/skillshub). You could also take time to develop new hobbies and interests outside of your course, through some of the Students’ Union’s clubs and societies.

GIVE

Becoming a volunteer is a brilliant way to meet like-minded people and to give back some kindness. It’s also great work experience and good for your C.V. Come to the Brighton Life Fair to sign up, or ask the Students’ Union about community volunteering opportunities.

SAFER DRINKING AND SUBSTANCE

USE Alcohol and drugs can be risky and have a negative effect on your wellbeing. Don't feel pressured into experimenting and avoid excessive use.

SAFER SEX Far fewer people are having sex than you might think. Don't feel pressured into having sex, or into doing anything you don't want to do – and make sure others don't feel pressured, either. Sign up for the X-card in the Student Life Centre for advice on sexual health as well as free condoms, dams and femidoms.

SLEEP WELL Apart from leaving us feeling tired, poor sleep can lead to worry, negative thoughts, and feelings of depression and anxiety. Try to get 7-8 hours of good quality sleep a night.

WRONG COURSE? You may find that the course you've chosen isn't what you expected or that it doesn't suit your strengths. Don't panic and don't delay – go and chat to your Academic Advisor or an Advisor in the Student Life Centre.

LOOKING OUT FOR OTHERS Try to be as kind and supportive as you can to others. If you're worried about a friend, make sure you let your Residential Advisor or someone in the Student Life Centre know. It's not your responsibility to fix their problems, but you can help them find support.
